MAINSPRING BROKE RECORD AT DELMAR

Brockmiller Horse Covered Mile and One-Eighth in 1:54, Winning Handily.

FOOTLIGHTS FAVORITE LOST.

Judge Murphy Investigated Race, but Mare Was Found to Be Injured-Edith May a Victor.

With victories scored by Edith May and Mainspring in the features at Delmar and with the breaking of a track record by the latter, the racing season of 1904 wound up at the county track yesterday

Before a big crowd and accompanied by as heavy play as has been recorded on any Monday this season, the meeting ed after a most successful year. A card of seven races was run off, and fast time was made in nearly every event.

Following the victory of Mainspring in the main race of the day, Judge Murphy called Jockey McMullen into the stand and questioned him concerning the race run by the Gay filly. Footlights is usually a front runner, but the terrific pace of yesterday may have served to kill her chances. Reaching the served to kill her chances. Reaching the far turn and while running in second position, she suddenly dropped back abruptly and had to make up a world of ground. Mainspring had been trailing his field for the early stages, but shot to the foreat the stretch turn and won rather handly, covering the mile and one-eighth in 15t, just one-half of a second better than the track record. Sam Craig made a bold bid in the last sixteenth, but could not quite get up, while Footlights, who finished in her usual game fashion after being straightened out for home, was third, a half length away.

ished in her usual game fashion after being straightened out for home, was third,
a half length away.

Jockey McMullen was violently agitated when called into the stand and wept while profesting his innocence. He claimed that the maire had struck the fence at the far turn and had been knocked completely but of it.

Doctor Rexford, who was asked to examine the filly after she had been unsaddled, stated that her near force leg had been badly cut and that there was evidences that she had been bumped into the fence.

dences that she had been bumped into the fence.

Judge Murphy, therefore, decided that the race should be passed over, as there was no definite evidence against the rider. He had the owner of the filly in the stand, however, and held a lengthy inquiry on the race before handing down his decision.

Mainspring carried but eighty-five pounds in the race, and ran creditably throughout. Off rather hadly, the horse made up a world of ground and was going away at the end.

Edith May scored in the fourth event, winning neatly enough from Braden and Maister. The filly led all the way and covered the route in 1:14½. Folles Bergeres won the third event, beating Ingolthrift and Anne Davis.

Amberita won the last event of the day at odds of 6 to 1. She ran in John S. Brat-

Buffalo Player Takes First Match o Final Series for Pool Championship.

Jerome Keogh of Buffalo, N. Y., defeated "Kid" Hueston in the first game of the play-off at the Broadway last night by a core of 125 to 120.

Keogh and Hueston put up an excellent exhibition, and the local lad showed his true class against the Buffalo boy. Up until the very last frame, the game was in doubt, and but for a scratch, Hueston

It took the last frame to decide the rame. Hueston showed improved form over the game he played against De Oro Sunday night. The Buffalo boy deserves credit, however, for beating Hueston, as he displayed wonderful ability in pocketing the ivories. Keogh made a high run of 42, while Hueston's best run was 15. Hueston will play De Oro again to-night, and unless he beats the Cuban he will have to be satisfied with second money. Keogh showed excellent judgment of distance, and his stroke was good, aithough he fell down on some easy shots. Hueston made Keogh work haro all the way, as he left the Buffalo player many hard shots.

After the first two frames Keogh was the favorite in the betting at odds of 2 to 1. ng the ivories. Keogh made a high run I to 1.

He pocketed 10 points in the first inning and 15 in the second inning.

After that the pair ran along on even terms until the close of the match, when Keogh beat the local lad on the last frame.

To-night Alfred De Oro will play Hueston, and if the local lad loses the battle for first honors will be between De O.o and Keogh.

The score:

Keogh-19 15 2 15 6 5 8 0 15 15 0 12 4 1 7 2 7 1-112. High run, 42.

PLEISCHMAN RECOUPS FORTUNE. Terfman Accumulates $150,000 in Wall Street Speculation. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Oct. 31.—William Fleischman, brother of former Mayor Julius Fleischman of Cincinnati, who left the Saratoga race track a year ago last August owing bookmakers $40,000 which he could not pay, aided by his brother, has accumulated $150,000 through Wall street operations.

George C. Wheelock, president of the Metropolitan Turf Association, last spring refused an offer made by Fleischman to settle on a basis of $10,000 in cash and $30,000 in notes. Wheelock said he would have all or nothing. Fleischman now says that he will take his own time before settling with the bookmakers.

He accurits that some time he will pay all that he owes. He is inclined to pay some of his creditors among the bookmakers now, but he intends, he says, to make Mr. Wheelock wait. New York, Oct. 31.-William Fleischr scored on several occasions.

The St. Louis line broke through and caused good interference, and the white and blue never lost the ball on downs.

The visitors put up a better game in the second half and seemed to be good at long-winded playing. This was tne first workout that the local bunch had had in a week, and they went into the game with a will, although they were not forced to play their best.

At the beginning of the game, the Wentworth boys started in good and it looked as though they would give to Delaney's men a tough argument. After seven minutes of play, however, the St. Louis team succeeded in scoring the first touchdown. Pechmann being sent over for the first score.

Pechmann being sent over for the first score.

Much team work was noticeable on the local team's part, and they caused good interference and touchdowns, netted from long runs, on several occasions. A feature of the game was the kicking of Irwin, He performed this duty at all kick-offs, and seldom did he boot the skin without sending it behind the opposing line.

Delaney thinks he has found another good kicker in Kinney. Sam Campbell tried to boot the ball through the bars after the first three touchdowns, but failed each time. Kinney was told to try this part of the game, and he kicked five out of the seven tries, and also kicked through the bars from the thirty-five-yard line.

Pechmann scored the first touchdown from the twenty-five-yard line, after seven minutes of play. Campbell failed to kick the goal. Irwin scored the next goal, and Campbell again failed to kick. The third touchdown was made by Kinney, and Campbell again failed to kick. The third touchdown was made by Kinney, and Campbell failed.

The ball was in Wentworth's hands, but he tumbled and Irwin picked up the skin and ran sixty yards, scoring. While he was running few noticed him, and the referee was looking for the ball.

Kinney made a run of sixty yards, scored and kicked the goal. He then kicked from the thirty-five-yard line. The score at the end of the first half was 37 to 0.

In the second half, Dingman scored, and Kinney kicked. Hennerich scored and Kinney kicked. Hennerich scored and Kinney kicked. Hennerich scored and Kinney kicked. Dillon then kicked goal from the twenty-five-yard line. Kinney scored and kicked the last touchdown.

until Saturday, when they play the Greenville High School at Greenville, Ill. Coach Walker is working his men daily at Forest Park and thinks he will bag the bunting in the Interscholastic League

Lynch, Sherry and Bloome have been ordered out of the game for a while, owing to low percentages in their studies. Walker thinks he can readily replace their position with the great number of candidates that he has.

James E. Sullivan, Chief of the Department of Physical Culture, says that he thinks that St. Louis University and Washington University will play their scheduled game on November 3, although Coach Boynton of the latter team is op-posed to meeting the Grand avenue posed to meeting the Grand avenue cleven.

"The teams are evenly matched, have their following and the public wants the game played and I think that Coach Boynton will be induced to allow his team to play," said Chief Sullivan in speaking of the entry of the two teams for the champlonship.

Coach Boynton said: "My team has too hard a schedule to play on election day, and unless one of the strong games is canceled, I will not allow my team to play, of course, I am not one bit afraid of being benten and would like to see the game played to settle the argument as to which is the better team."

"Last year, we challenged Washington and played a post-season game and we lost," said Coach Delaney of St. Losis, but I don't think that they can again do this. I nave entered my team and will certainly play if Washington is willing to opposeaus."

Coach Wilbur of C. B. C. thinks now

do this. I nave entered my team and will certainly play if Washington is willing to opposesus."

Coach Wilbur of C. B. C. thinks now that he is more than ever entitled to a same with either Washington or St. Lou's University. In all but one or two cases this season the college boys have won from heavier teams than themselves, and after their defeat of Lombard their coach thinks that he should be considered in a class with the universities.

"Of course, they think they outclass us at all stages, but you can bet that if they would play us they would bump up against a much harder proposition than they would expect." said Wilbur.

C. B. C. should be allowed to enter the football champlonship that is scheduled to be played at the Stadium November 8. Washington refuses to play, and if C. B. C. would be substituted many think that it would make as good a game as the Washington-St. Louis.

St. Louis University will play the Carbondale team at the Stadium Thursday. There has been considerable disarrangement of the University schedule, but Delancy has announced that his team will meet Carbondale.

At first the local team was to play Wentworth. Sunday night several of the players did not know that they were to meet the team, and said that the game had been canceled. They did not know until yesterday that they were to play Wentworth until they reported for practice and were taken to the Stadium.

The Homeopathic Medics defeated the econd team of that squad yesterday afternoon, the regulars running up a score of 25 to 0. Both teams played good ball and many of the subs proved to be players of good quality at their positions, and the team need not be afraid of having one or two men on the shelf.

The Columbias defeated the H. McK.'s Sunday by the score of 6 to 9. Fitzgibbons made the touchdown and Cudmore kicked the goal.

Reber, the big guard of the St. Louis University team, played a star game at that position yesterday. Although he was opposed by players much lighter than himself, he dove into the line and broke up the interference. This is Reber's first year at the game, and he is considered by Delaney to be one of the finds of the local season. Weighing more than 200 pounds, he greatly helps to make the team beefy, and with his speed will readily hold down the position.

San Francisco, Oct. 31.—As a result Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 31.—As a result California lost the light-weight championship of the world when he fouled Joe Gans. He had sent Gans to his knees in the fifth round, and then, losing his head, gave him fouled you punch, and Referee Graney promptly gave the decision to Gans on a foul.

The same thing had happened in the fourth round. Gans had dropped to his knees to escape a blow that did not land. Britt struck at him, but Graney would not allow the foul. In the next round, how ever, Graney very promptly recognized the foul fighting.

It looked almost from the start as if it were Britt's fight. He actually outbooked Gans sind landed blow after blow. In the fourth round it was apparent that Gans was scared, and, barring a foul, the fight was Britt's a certainty. While no excuse can be made for Britt losing his head, it certainly seemed that Gans in vited a foul.

The decision was a great shock to the biggest crowd that ever filled the pavillon, but fair-minded men agreed that Graney's judgment was just. Britt showed marvel, our strength and quickness. GRANEY'S STATEMENT. "I really should have given Gans the decinion in the fourth round, when Britt fouled him, but as Gans was not hurt, I overlooked it. though Britt himself admitted that I could have called a foul at that time. The second offense in the fifth round was so palpable, however, that I was forced to give Gans the decision."

Britt was frantic with rage when he realized that he had lost the fight, and he rushed at Graney, striking wildly. Graney, who is something of a boxer himself, fought back, but the police interfered and separated the belligerents. Britt declared as he left the ring:

"I know that I can beat Gans and I want to fight him again."

The fight demonstrated that Britt is a wonder in his class. He is a clever boxer, quick as a cat and a hard hitter, with the addition of having a buildog grit that makes him fight all the harder when he is being punished.

missed a straight right for the head. Britt was short with left for the body and missed a left for the head as the bell rang.

The work in the round was light, Britt having a slight advantage. Gans permitted Britt to do most of the work. Britt's blows were of a light nature and did no harm.

Round 2-Britt missed left and right for body, and they went to a clinch. Britt suddenly lunged his left to the head and then brought it to the body. Gans continued to force Britt about the ring, and they came to a clinch without result.

Britt missed a left hook to the body, and then sent a straight left to Gans's nose, Gans retailating with left to the body. Britt drove Gans back with a left swing to the body. Britt bored in, scorring with left and right to the wind. In the mix both exchanged rights and lefts to the face. Britt missed a vicious left for the body. They came together again, Britt missing right for the body.

A rally in the center of the ring followed, Britt and in the face as the bell rang, but not before he had received a straight left to the head. Britt did most of the leading in this round. The honers were about even, however.

Round 2. They mixed it fiercely at close quarters, both doing some very clever boxing. Gans got in a good right to the body, An ineffectual mix followed.

Britt caught Gans with a terrific right to the law, dazing the colored man. He followed the advantage with a right and left to the head, forcing Gans to clinch. Britt rushed in, fighting wildly. He bombarded Gans face and body with right and left to the head, forcing Gans to clinch. Britt rushed in, fighting wildly. He bombarded Gans face and body with right and left swings, and put some punishing rights over the heart. Britt at close quarters distressed Gans with a fearful right on the body. Gans clung desperately to Britt to avoid punishment, and the gong found them in this position. It was all Britt's round.

Round 4. Britt waded in fiercely, rushing Gans to the ropes with a heavy left to the body. Himmy then shot a straight r lefts to the face. There was fearful confusion and the beil was not heard.

In this round, Britt hit Gans accidentally, while Gans was down, but a claim of foul was disallowed. Gans was in distress and the gong saved him.

Round 5—They mixed fiercely. Britt went after Gans like a whirlwind. Britt sent Gans to the floor with a succession of rights and, lefts to the jaw. As Gans was attempting to rise, Britt met him with a desperate right to the jaw.

Eddle Graney quickly disqualified Britt and awarded the decision to Ganz. The excitement was terrific. Britt rushed at Graney like a madman and fought him to the ropes. A squad of police immediately jumped into the ring, and it looked as if there would be a general fight.

The house gave vent to its disapprovat by tremendous hooting, and wildly cheered Britt as he went to the center of the ring.
